COUNCIL BUSINESS MEETING, 2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Volume XXXVIII

March 2019

Number 3

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

Winter is not going to last forever. Let's get ready for Spring. We are going to start by having a First Degree for new members on Tuesday, March 12, 2019. Bring a new member at 5:30 p.m. and the First Degree will start at 6:00. Please make an effort to sign up a new member, a man who is a practicing Catholic. Just ask them. Whoever signs them up should go to the Degree with them. We plan to have First, Second and Third Degrees in July. We would like everyone who has had only the First Degree to join the Second and Third Degrees then. You will hear more on this later.

Stop by the club on Friday nights for our chicken dinners and it is almost time for our fish dinners. Ash Wednesday is March 6.

We are getting ready for softball, volleyball, driving range and golf. A whole lot going on at Quincy Knights of Columbus!

Fraternally yours,
 Bob Klingele, Grand Knight

FOURTH DEGREE NEWS

Dear Sir Knights,

With Lent coming upon us, let us take this time to reflect and make some sacrifices during the season. Ash Wednesday will be our first fish fry starting at 5:00 until 7:30 p.m., then every Friday until Easter. Again this year, we will be serving out of McGivney Hall.

I would like to thank all of you, your family and friends that came out to support our Friday night chicken dinners. It was a huge success for the Fourth Degree Assembly #200 and K. of C. Council #583.

Thanks to all the volunteers who worked there Thursday and Friday nights – we couldn't do this without you. With the money raised from these dinners, we will be able to continue to provide the Mass for Shut-Ins and other donations during the year.

Remember in your prayers all our Assembly #200 and Council #583 members who are sick, in the hospital, nursing homes or at home.

Also our service men and women who are serving in the Armed Forces.

Vivat Jesus
 Your Faithful Navigator

NOTICE OF CHANGE

The deadline for the Knightly news articles will now be the 15th of each month.

It will be labeled and mailed about a week earlier than it has in the past.

NOTICE

At our January 8 Council meeting, it was agreed we would fund three $1,000 scholarships to Quincy University starting with the next school year.

These scholarships will be awarded to the son, daughter, grandson or granddaughter of an active Council #583 member.

If you are current on your dues and have one of the above going to Q.U. this coming fall, fill out the application below and turn it in to the club or to Quincy University.

If more than 3 students' names are submitted, we will draw the winners at a Council meeting.

Iona Barry - Mary Steinbrecher
Constance (Connie) Liesen

The K of C men will also be giving 25 and 50 year membership pins. Breakfast will be served after the Mass prepared by Terry and Darlene Obert and crew.

If we missed anyone, call Mary at 223-2413

LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. ABSTINENCE – Everyone 14 years of age and over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. FAST – Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 is required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is permitted. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each person's needs, but together these two should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids (including milk and fruit juices) are allowed.
3. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

GIFT CERTIFICATES

Gift certificates for the Friday night Lenten Fish Fries are now available at the main bar during business hours. We also are still selling certificates for the Sunday breakfast buffets along with all golf course passes and driving range passes. These make great gifts for birthdays, anniversaries, or any other special occasion.

GOLF

Prices of golf passes will increase slightly April 1. To avoid the increase, purchase by March 31 at the main bar or golf shack if it is open. For more info, contact Mike Wensing, 573-690-5181.

OUR INSURANCE FIELD AGENT

Anyone needing assistance with Knights of Columbus insurance issues may call the new agent, Ian Courter, 309-333-5203.

Perspective from the Pew

I made the mistake of watching the news before I went to Mass recently. After watching about 15 minutes of the commentator's ravings, I suddenly began to remember some instruction that I had received while I was a member of the military. The title of the class was basically Know Your Enemy.

The first lecture was about being observant.

Seems we have all heard that one before. Be sober, be watchful! For your adversary the Devil, as a roaring lion, goes about seeking someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in faith . . . (1 Peter 5:8-9)

The second lecture was basically a reality check.

Like it or not, you are at war. No matter who you are – whether or not you know it – you have a mortal enemy who wants to destroy you, not just in this life, but in the next as well. No matter where you live on this planet – whether or not you can see it – you live on a hotly contested battlefield, and you can't escape the conflict.

It's a spiritual war with crucial consequences in your everyday life. And the outcome of that war will determine your eternal destiny. The first rule of any type of warfare is to Know Your Enemy. How can you fight an adversary you can't identify? Worse yet, how can you avoid being a casualty in a battle going on all around you if you don't even recognize that you're in danger?

Your adversary is the Devil, with his army of demons. Your battle with him rages not only all around you, but also within you, a fierce conflict for control of your mind, your heart, and your ultimate destiny. The world may scoff and tell you there is no Devil and no battle. But the world has been blinded to these realities by the Enemy himself. Its skepticism is part of his stealth strategy: those who deny his existence are an easy prey.

The Church teaches that Satan and the other demons were at first good angels, created by God before the creation of the human race. But they became evil by their own free choice, radically rejecting God and His reign. Satan was the leader of the rebels. God and the good angels defeated them and cast them out of heaven. Now they make their influence felt in our world.

God is infinitely more powerful than the Devil and his hosts. So why doesn't God prevent them from their evil-doing on planet earth? We could ask a similar question about why God doesn't stop human beings from committing wicked deeds. Evil's continuing presence among us is a mystery we can't fully figure out in this life. Nevertheless, we can say this much: God allows evil because He's powerful enough to bring out of even the greatest evil a much greater good.

Where is the proof?

At this point many of you may doubt that you are involved in any way, and still more of you may say that is no war at all. My only response is this: Demons tempt us through deception. The Devil is a liar and the father of lies (Jn 8:44). Demons tempt through accusation. The Devil, the "accuser" of Christians as well as a liar (RV 12:10). By making accusations – usually false ones – against us and those around us, he can act like a bully who pressures us into sin. The Devil tempts us through doubt as he seeks to diminish our faith. His strategy is to insinuate into our thoughts various doubts about God and His will for us. The approach when he tempted Jesus in the wilderness; If you are the Son of God ... (LK 4:3). Demons tempt us through enticement. They bring to our attention things we find attractive, and then suggest that we attain what attracts us through illicit means. Demons tempt us through provocation. They can plant thoughts or arrange circumstance that make to more likely we'll be stirred to pride or anger or lust – or even despair.

Will continue next month.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.
