COUNCIL BUSINESS MEETING, 2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Volume XXXVIII

August 2019

Number 8

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Hello Brother Knights,

I hope you are enjoying the summer weather in between the raindrops. When you have the time, come out and enjoy the Knights of Columbus facilities. Watch softball, volleyball, a round of golf or two and be sure to come to our Bar-B-Que on August 8 to 11 or enjoy a drink at our bar or daily sandwiches across from our softball field.

If you are asked to help with the Bar-B-Que, please do. We are working together as officers of Columbus Home and Knights of Columbus planning a wonderful time for all those attending.

As we had our election of officers, I look forward to working with all officers and members during the next year. I challenge every member to sponsor a new member this year.

During the Bar-B-Que, we will be doing part of the Tootsie Roll Drive. It helps those that are disadvantaged. All Lives are valuable.

Fraternally yours,
Grand Knight Dan Arnold

FOURTH DEGREE NEWS

The First order of business is to inform you there will be no meeting in August — will resume in September.

That being said, if you are looking for something to do in August, maybe you could help at this year's Bar-B-Que, held on August 8, 9, 10, 11. Tent Sunday, where we set-up all the tents, will be Sunday, August 4. Look for time and information in Knightly News. Your help is always needed.

Second order of business is the Friday Night "All-You-Can-Eat" Chicken Dinners that will be starting September 13. Fourth Degree, along with 2 groups from the Council, will again be cooking. Serving from 5:00-7:30 p.m. Same menu as last year. Cost for meal: $7.50 adults, $3.50 kids 12 and under, children under 5 free. Tell friends, family and neighbors and come out to "Your Club" and enjoy good food and friendship.

Please keep in your prayers members and family of our Assemblies that are sick, home-bound, in hospitals or nursing homes that need our prayers.

Remember also our servicemen and women. Keep them also in your prayers.

Perspective from the Pew

All members of the clergy vow obedience to their Bishop, and all his successors, but in a way, not only to him but to one another as well, and in particular to their elders. This goes way beyond doing what they're told and requires an enormous amount of patience.

I have observed that preaching to strangers seems to be easier than preaching to my friends. The strangers do not know me as well as my friends do, but it's hard to think of anything serious to tell my friends.

I was asked to "preach" on the topic of love to a small group, and was at a loss for what to say to them, so I reached out to my spiritual director. When I arrived at his office, I knocked on the door, opened it, walked in, and found him napping. I gently nudged him, he opened his eyes, looked around the room for a moment, then simply said, "Tell them that there will come a day when she will want the window closed, and he will want the window open." Then he went back to sleep.

When it comes to living with someone, everything boils down to forgiveness. "Love is patient and kind . . . Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things" (1 Cor 13: 4-7, emphasis added).

So true love is more about endurance than it is about chocolates and teddy bears. We prove our love at precisely those moments when the people we love test our patience, put a strain on our kindness, and tempt us to anger. Love is truly love – and not just infatuation – when it proves itself in the crucible of suffering.

A Family Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our family. Enlighten our hearts and minds that we may live more fully this vocation to love.

In our daily life and work, may we reflect the self-giving love which you, O Father, eternally show with your Son and the Holy Spirit.

Let your love be evident in the peace that reigns in our home and in the faith we profess and live. May our family always be a place of generosity, understanding, forgiveness and joy.

Kindly give us the wisdom and courage to be witnesses to your eternal design for the family; and grant that the Holy Family of Nazareth may always guide our path to holiness as a family.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
