COUNCIL BUSINESS MEETING, 2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Volume XXXVIII

July 2019

Number 7

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Hello Brother Knights,

By the time you receive this, I should be installed as Grand Knight. I have been Deputy Grand Knight for the past year. I live on a farm in southern Adams County and work two part-time jobs: substitute teaching and kennel care for cats, dogs and chickens.

The Officers of both KC and Columbus Home are chairing the Bar-B-Que and look forward to excellent attendance. All Help will be appreciated.

Election of officers was Tuesday, June 11. Nominations are as follows: Grand Knight: Don Arnold, Deputy Grand Knight: John Benz, Chancellor: Bob Klingele, Recorder: Bill Anderson, Financial Secretary: John Veith, Treasurer: Dan Hoffman, Advocate: Tom Maas, Warden: Chuck Zanger, Inside Guard: Ed Zanger, Outside Guard: Matt Schulte, New Trustee: Tom Grawe. Support your officers as best you can.

One of the proudest successes this year was donating money to Birthright for an ultrasound. All lives are valuable.

God Bless One and All,

Fraternally yours,
Dan Arnold, Grand Knight

ADORATION CHAPEL NEEDS

Jesus asked Peter, James and John to come pray with Him in the garden. Is Jesus asking you to come pray with Him too?

The Adoration Chapel, located at St. Peter Church, is the perfect place to do this . . . Come pray with Jesus.

Can you give Him an hour a month, every 2 weeks, every week? Please think about it. We are in need to fill the hours of each day with prayer. Can you spare an hour to spend in prayer? Prayer for others, prayer for the country, prayer for the world, prayer for all of us.

The following hours are available right now to be filled. Can you please help and spend an hour in prayer?

Sunday — 2:00-3:00 a.m.

Monday — 3:00-4:00 a.m. or 11:00 p.m. to Midnight on the first week of the month.

Tuesday — 1:00-2:00 a.m. (alternating weeks) or 2:00-3:00 a.m.

Friday — 9:00-10:00 p.m. or 10:00-11:00 p.m.

Saturday — 2:00-3:00 a.m.

We would love to have you join our group. Questions or to sign up, contact Gina Wolf at 217-257-9966 or Mary Voorhis at 217-653-3127.

God is calling you to pray with Him! Can you hear Him?

Perspective from the Pew

The Easter Season is done, Pentecost has come and gone and we are back in Ordinary Time, a time for us to listen and learn more, a time for us to deepen the reflections we had during the seasons of Lent and Easter. Recently I have noticed I am out of sync, not running on all eight cylinders, missing the beat, and not playing well with others, etc. I think you get my drift, and because of this I am inadvertently “hurting” others. This is not my intention, but it is happening, and it is something I need to fix.

So, I have taken some time to look back, to determine what I did to get me here, and after thoroughly searching I still can't figure it out. However, I did notice there were a few minor things that I am not doing regularly, things I routinely performed daily or weekly, now I am not performing them with the scheduled routine I once did, and I am wondering if this is the reason I am out of sync with myself and out of sync with the people I truly care for?

These were simple things, things that were once routine, and now I easily accept the occasion of “skipping” them in lieu of something else, something that at the time seems to be more important, and needing to be done then, not being able to postpone it.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 735 says, “He, then, gives us the “pledge” or “first fruits” of our inheritance: the very life of the Holy Trinity, which is to love as “God (has) loved us.” Love is our true destiny. We do not find the meaning of life by ourselves alone – we find it with another. I am blessed for I have a few people who truly care for me, who love me. God created us, not to be alone, but to be with others, the Church functions in Community, one body, and we all are part of the one body.

If you too are struggling with being in sync, finding your place, or just being yourself, perhaps going back to the basics will help return you to who you want to be. Try not to take things for granted as though they are expected, but rather be thankful and return the gift of love to the giver.

Talk with people, have a conversation, do not talk to them as though you were a professor and giving a lecture, but rather with compassion and understanding. Finally, share the love, remember Jesus' words, “Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.” (Matthew 25).

Remember we are all created in His image, men and women alike, so when we are looking at our loved ones, our friends, are we seeing them, or are we seeing Jesus? I know, my vision has been a little blurred lately, my eyeglasses are just a little out of focus, so I am going to give my glasses a real good cleaning, get them adjusted, put them back on, so that I can truly focus on “seeing” Jesus.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
