Volume XXXVIII

November 2019

Number 11

---

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

Where has time gone? Autumn is here and summer is gone. Watched a softball game a couple weeks ago and volleyball is over. Also watched one of our baseball dart leagues. Looks as though they are going well. Dart players have a great time and add a lot of fun to our Club.

Our Friday chicken dinners and our Sunday morning breakfasts are going well. Come out and enjoy a fine meal and some fellowship. We have great people working at both events. A Great Big Thank You to all who help. Also, a thank you to all who come and eat.

We have had two weekends of our Tootsie Roll Drive and it is going well. We will continue to have them available at our breakfasts and dinners. Please donate to help intellectual and disabled people.

October 27 is our First (at noon), Second (at 1:00), and Third Degree ceremonies. I would like at least a hundred members present. Come out at noon or 1:00 and enjoy the fellowship. Ask some to become a K.C. member. If you sign up five new members, you get your dues paid for the next year.

November 2, 2019 is our Memorial Mass at St. Peter Church at 7:00 p.m. Let us have a huge turnout. This is held in honor of all members who have passed away this past year.

I had the privilege of teaching kindergarten this past week. Some would say I fit right in. One boy in class is battling cancer of the blood. As I was telling the class about myself, I mentioned that I was a 20 year cancer survivor. At the end of the school day, he told me he had a great day. That helped make a good school day.

At our last meeting we donated $350 to Birthright. Patty Adam, Director of Birthright, spoke on how we helped save their organization several years ago with a donation.

Remember all lives have value. God Bless one and all.

Fraternally yours,
Grand Knight Don Arnold

Perspective from the Pew

I have settled myself down, waiting for Mass to begin, and suddenly as though a light switch was flipped on, my mind turned to a prayer I once said almost daily. I could not remember the order of the words, but I could remember its meaning. So, I began to go through the prayer, carefully, trying to remember the word order, carefully trying not to leave out a portion.

It is a simple prayer, a prayer that has much meaning for all, a prayer that can be prayed by young and old alike, for though it is very simple, upon reflection it is very deep and profound. The author is Thomas Merton. He was born in Prades, Pyrenees-Orientales France on January 31, 1915. He was ordained a Trappist Monk in 1949, and he passed from this world on December 10, 1968.

I have often found much comfort in this prayer, perhaps you will also.

"My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it. Therefore will I trust you always, though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone."
